

NATIONAL SKILL TRAINING INSTITUTE (WOMEN) BENGALURU

Report on Special Campaign 3.0

Shri Sanjay Arora, Deputy Secretary conducted an inspection of the NSTI (W) Bengaluru on 12th October 2023. During his inspection, they have shown they have conducted 2 competitions as “Poster Making” and “Best from Waste”. Also, they have presented redesigned new dress using old clothes and some decorative items from the leftover materials.

1. Poster Making Competition: As a part of Special Campaign 3.0, Poster Competition with the theme of "Swachhhta hi Seva" was conducted on 12.10.2023 in which 12 trainees participated.

Before photo

After photo

1. Best from Waste Competition: the items were made by using recycling ideas of trainees to make the campus greener.

The items used were old newspaper, used bottles, empty tin cans, cardboard boxes, coconut shells and plastic bottles. And using that old items various wall hangings, flower pots, dolls and other decorative items were made using empty egg trays.

Before photo

After photo

2. Redesigning of old clothes: New dresses such as Skirts, Kaftan, night suit, salwar suit, lehenga etc. were made by redesigning the old sarees, blankets and dupatta etc. by the trainees of CITS FDT trade. The cloth material used were different kinds as cotton, banarasi, tissue, synthetic etc.

Also, the photo frames were made using cotton boxes and colour papers leftover records works and decorative flower vase was made using used glass bottle and x-ray films.

A wall outside classroom painted by trainees as a part of Art & Craft project

3. Record Room Cleaning and Space Management: It is proposed to clean and re-arrange the Record room during the Special Campaign 3.0. The old files (approx.. 50 No.) kept here will be reviewed and action will be taken to close/ weed out the files as per the rules and the free space of approx. 200 sqmt. will be created.

Also, beautification of the room is also assigned to the faculty of Interior Design trade so that other officers and staff will get motivated and they will also make their clean and maintained.

The before photo is attached. After photo will be shared by 30th October 2023.

Before photo

Convocation Ceremony for CTS and CITS 2023